

ProActive Unit

During Fiscal Year 2008, the Livingston County Sheriff's Police remained committed to the Livingston County ProActive Unit, which consists of officers from the Livingston County Sheriff's Police, Pontiac Police Department, Dwight Police Department, and Fairbury Police Department. This unit's primary function is to make a major impact on gangs and drug trafficking in Livingston County. The Unit made 278 arrests throughout the county. These arrests resulted in 80 felony drug charges, 107 misdemeanor drug charges, 213 non-drug charges, and 75 warrant arrests.

The investigative division, working closely with the patrol division, completed investigations involving the unlawful delivery of cocaine, heroin, ecstasy, prescription pills, and cannabis. These investigations also led to 22 search warrant / consent searches and the seizures of drugs, cash, and other property. A total of 26 cases were initiated in Livingston County resulting in 21 arrests.
